“ I share your sorrow at Rogers's passing. Fond memories of family gatherings. I am especially mindful of the memory Roger and Ginnie present with us through long vigil of our mom's passing back in 1998. Roger made kind coffee runs for us and his presence was strong, steady, and comforting during a difficult time. We are now here for you Ginnie, and wish all of your family peace and comfort at this hard time. Love and prayers,

“ We were saddened to hear of Roger’s sudden passing, and pray for the family as they grieve their great loss. Roger was the definition of “nice guy” it beamed out of him when he was around, you couldn’t help but feel it when in his presence.

“ I was saddened to hear about the passing of Roger.
Will always remember the seemingly endless vigil he and Ginnie spent with our family when our mother passed away in December of 1998. Roger's presence and kindness and coffee runs in the middle of the night were acts of deep love. We remember them. May peace come to you and your entire family.
Love, Rev. Meg Anzalone and Martha

“ A few years ago I met Roger again after 50 years, at the Poirier Descendants Reunion in Notre Dame New Brunswick. He hadn't changed at all - still funny!
